CLERK Read the following resolution, introduced by Jon Camp, who moved its adoption:

A-83258 WHEREAS, the Planning Director has made application to amend the 2025 Lincoln/Lancaster County Comprehensive Plan to incorporate the Stevens Creek Watershed Master Plan as a subarea plan and to adjust the Future Land Use Plan accordingly; and
WHEREAS, the Lincoln City-Lancaster County Planning Commission has recommended amendments to the Stevens Creek Watershed Master Plan; and
WHEREAS, the Lincoln City-Lancaster County Planning Commission has recommended approval of said proposed amendment as amended.
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the City Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska:
That the 2025 Lincoln/Lancaster County Comprehensive Plan be amended as follows:
1. Amend the “Lincoln/Lancaster County Land Use Plan” figure on pages F23 and F25 to adjust the designation of “Green Space” and “Agricultural Stream Corridors” to the 100 year flood prone area as shown on the attached map and to appropriately reclassify areas no longer in the floodplain.

2. Add the “Stevens Creek Watershed Master Plan, 2005” to the list of approved subarea plans on Page F156.

3. Add a new section to the end of the Watershed Management section on page F81 as follows:

The following watershed studies are adopted in order to provide guidance to watershed management activities within the basin.

- Stevens Creek Watershed Study and Flood Management Plan, 1998 (for rural watershed)
- Beal Slough Stormwater Master Plan, May 2000
- Southeast Upper Salt Creek Watershed Master Plan, 2003
- Stevens Creek Watershed Master Plan, 2005

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Steven Creek Watershed Master Plan be amended as follows:

1. Revise the Executive Summary by adding a sentence to the end of the first paragraph on Page ES-8 as follows:

Two alternative methods were generated to install BMPs in the watershed based on a range of approaches discussed with the Citizen Advisory Committee. The methods included 1) Regional Structural BMPs, and 2) Site-Specific Structural BMPs. Advantages and disadvantages for each method were evaluated, which included an analysis of cost and effectiveness. The evaluation is described in Section 6 of the Master Plan and resulted in selecting site-specific structural BMPs as the recommended alternative. This method provides a cost-effective approach to maintain the integrity of the natural streams, preserve water quality, and can be efficiently integrated in the City’s current development standards. The Master Plan includes guidance for revisions to the City’s design standards for site-specific BMPs, which would be applied consistently to all new developments. Section 7 of the Master Plan provides further details on how to integrate structural BMPs into new development sites. When revised design standards are drafted, all low cost options providing the same or greater water quality benefits should be considered and included as options for the developer.

2. Revise Section 7, “Drainage Criteria Manual Review,” to add a sentence to the first paragraph in 7.3, “Alternative Design Approaches,” on page 7-19 as follows:

The design approach described above combines the water quantity (2-, 10-, and 100-year controls) requirements with the water quality component (structural BMP) into a single integrated facility. This integrated approach is one of many design concepts that can be employed to achieve the desired results. When revised design standards are drafted, all low cost options providing the same or greater water quality benefits should be considered and included as options for the developer. The following paragraphs provide other alternative design approaches that can be implemented to achieve the same overall goals and objectives.

3. Revise the Watershed Planning Map on figure ES-5 and Figure 10.1 so that the future wastewater trunk line, which is shown on the map as a reference for potential future infrastructure, is noted to be determined in the future in the vicinity of Stevens Creek Stock Farm, as shown on Attachment “A” attached hereto.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that any other references in said plan which may be affected by the above-specified amendments be, and they hereby are amended to conform to such specific amendments.
