By City Council
May 18, 2007

Dan Marvin, Chairman
Lincoln City Council
555 South 10th Street
Lincoln, NE 68508

Dear Dan,

Congratulations on your selection as Chairman of the City Council for the upcoming year! You will be an excellent chairman and all of us at DLA look forward to working with you.

As has been the custom for many years, we are contacting you to invite a member of the City Council to serve as a liaison to our board of directors, which meets monthly at 8 a.m. on the fourth Tuesday of the month. This liaison role has served both DLA and the City Council well in recent years and we hope it will continue.

Thank you for discussing this with the council. We look forward to continuing our strong partnership with you.

Sincerely,

Polly M. McMullen, President
Downtown Lincoln Association
Dear Councilman Marvin,

As the Chair of the City Council the Lincoln Haymarket Development Corporation (LHDC) requests that the council appoint a member to serve as liaison to our board.

LHDC operates the Farmers’ Market, owns and operates the Hardy and Granger buildings in the Haymarket and conducts several fundraising events during the year. (ie: Chocolate Lovers Fantasy and Corkand Ale Tasting) LHDC is committed to the economic revitalization of Lincoln's Historic Haymarket District through a continuing comprehensive process that protects, enhances and promotes the District's architectural and cultural heritage. We use the proceeds from our activities to accomplish this mission.

I have attached an information sheet on our organization which you may find helpful.

We have been fortunate to have Ken Svoboda attend our board meeting the past several years. Ken replaced Councilwoman McRory, who represents our district, who was unable to commit to attending our meetings. With the election of a new councilman for our area, John Spatz, we feel it is appropriate to explore if that individual would like to begin attending our board meetings. Our board meets the third Monday of every month from September to May with the months of June, July and August off from 5:45 p.m. to approximately 7:00 p.m.

There are many exciting things happening in our area. Talk of the new arena, hotel and convention center, the redevelopment of the Saw Mill property, the construction of additional condos at the BisonBookBuilding, etc. We would like to have the council decide who best fits to serve as a liaison with our board.

If you have any questions concerning this request or the Lincoln Haymarket Development Corporation please feel free to contact either myself or Peter Hind our board president.

Doug Lienemann

Past President

LHDC

What is the Lincoln Haymarket Development Corporation?
Often referred to as LHDC or simply "Historic Haymarket", LHDC is a non-profit organization formed by Haymarket businesses, property owners, and community leaders in 1985. LHDC was primarily formed in order to apply for participation in the National Main Street Program. This is a revitalization program, administered by the National Trust for Historic Preservation. The Haymarket was selected as one of nine sites in the nation that year as a district qualifying as a Main Street Program Site. This led the District and LHDC to the development of a broad-based revitalization plan, done under the direction of the National Main Street Center. LHDC also formulated a plan to financially implement the program over a long period of time.

LHDC Mission Statement
LHDC is committed to the economic revitalization of Lincoln's Historic Haymarket District through a continuing comprehensive process that protects, enhances and promotes the District's architectural and cultural heritage.

LHDC Goals
The goal of LHDC is to develop and maintain a strong Historic Haymarket District. An organization that can effectively plan, manage and implement projects, enhance and maintain the design quality within the District, develop and maintain an economically dynamic District, and develop and maintain a distinct image and do quality promotions.

These are the LHDC objectives
To establish an organization work plan, recruit members to implement the work plan, identify leadership for the organization and educate all members as to our purpose.

To foster a positive public attitude, involve all sectors of the city, establish a financially stable operations base using sound accounting procedures, and inventory public sector resources.

To develop and maintain cooperation and good public relations with area businesses, property owners, city, community, and other organizations.

To establish an overall image and logo and identify development potential of buildings and uses with an optimum mix of housing, office and retail, develop work shops for existing businesses, explore financial assistance mechanisms for redevelopment and work with the City regarding appropriation of funds to Haymarket projects.

To cultivate the media to enhance public awareness, sponsor annual events including the Farmers Market, attract tourism by working with the tourist bureau and other entities, develop and distribute promotional material, including a walking tour guide, and assist the retail merchants with promoting their businesses.

V. MISCELLANEOUS

1. Discussion on Council Members’ Committee Assignments
   (Attachments A-1, A-2, and B)
   Marvin stated this body has formal appointments, and various committee assignments. Does Council want to discuss assignments and make recommendations for committee participation, or consider and assign next week? Svoboda responded the Council is prepared to discuss and decide on committee assignments today.

   Marvin stated the attachments list the committees, with committee openings consisting of the Multicultural Advisory Committee, Joint Budget Committee, (2 people needed), Internal Liquor, Mayor’s Downtown Action Team, Downtown Master Plan Steering Committee, (received letter). The Community Learning Center, PRT, NU Directions (not meeting often), and the Northeast Citizens’ Meeting. Emery stated he would take the Northeast Citizens’ Meeting, and added he does not have any problem taking all of Newman’s committees, if Council would agree.

Camp stated someone may want to be involved in a particular committee, and possibly should discuss. Eschliman stated her interest is in JBC, which Newman and McRoy attended, and now needs two members. Spatz also volunteered to be on the JBC committee.

Eschliman asked if members should discuss what committees consist of, then decide on the ones required by ordinance, and work through assignments? Marvin replied when he set up the packet of information tried to break down what committees are by resolution, what Council is invited to, frequency of meetings, locations, etc.

Marvin listed the resolution committees, with a formal obligation to participate:
* RTSD (Railroad Transportation Safety District). Current members serving are Svoboda, Eschliman, and himself;
* The Public Building Commission with Cook and Camp serving;
* The Parks and Recreation Advisory Board has Cook as a member;
* Svoboda serves on the Board of Health;
* DEC (District Energy Corporation) has Svoboda as a member;
* Multicultural Advisory Committee was a McRoy position;
* Joint Budget Committee had been served by McRoy and Newman;
* Internal Auditing Review Committee, which meets infrequently, but is an unlimited term. Camp and Eschliman are committee members. Camp commented with the new internal audit position may result in more meetings; and
* Eschliman is serving on the Utility Billing Check-Off Program Board.

Marvin stated there are clean-up committees, having one-year terms. If there are resolutions to have individuals serve on these boards, the resolution should be passed even though the law states if one is appointed, and the resolution lapses, they would still be a member of the particular body.

The boards where one serves as a liaison would be:
* The PRT, (Problem Resolution Team);
* Internal Liquor Committee; and
* DLA (Downtown Lincoln Association)

Received letters from some Committees, and included in the attachments. Of interest is an original which created the Multicultural Advisory and Internal Liquor, in the early 1990's. Discussion into committee assignments included:

* Information Services Policy Committee. Camp serves on committee, meeting monthly;
* LPED (Lincoln Partnership for Economic Development) is an informal committee with Eschliman and Camp volunteering to attend meetings and keep the City Council informed;
* Cable Franchise has Cook as a member;
* Homeless Coalition/Continuum of Care. Eschliman is a committee member;
* The Haymarket Development Corporation Board sent a letter, asking us to ratify if we want to participate; and
* The Nebraska Innovation Zone Commission has Svoboda serving. Svoboda stated the committee would be having elections in the fall.

Eschliman asked, on Attachment A, the last section consisted of committees stemming from letters, requests, asking for a liaison? Marvin replied these committees are asking for participation from the Council. Eschliman has attended the Homeless Coalition and doesn't know if they requested a Council member. Grammer commented they probably requested long ago and others are current letters requesting participation.

Eschliman mentioned this brings up an ongoing discussion questioning the reasons for being on certain committees, and she was shocked, during the budget meetings with the Mayor, that there are some pressing community needs, with no committee. An example would be the meth problem, and it may be time to give up a committee which we’ve attended every year without knowing why, other then being appointed. We may need to have a meth liaison, of some kind. Another large problem would be binge drinking. On the Liquor Commission we attend meetings but maybe as a Council, or whomever is on the Committee, should push for realization of binge drinking being a huge problem. It’s important for the Council to be on top of problems, and as members of committees ask if we could work on these problems to see some measurable improvements. Also, some committees bring revenue to the City and the City Council probably should have a member attending. The committees which control expenses to the City are very important, where we help people get off addictions and back to work, or helping design downtown in order for more people to come. Doesn’t hurt to ask on all committees, even if done by resolution. There may have been a pressing problem ten years ago which now has been eliminated and the committee isn’t needed as badly today.

Camp said over the last several years he has seen some committees move with the times, and any way we can leverage ourselves is good. Know a lot of organizations would like to have an elected official or a Council member attend, maybe on a volunteer basis.

Eschliman said there are nine(9) events listed under potential committees/areas to monitor and even if we go as volunteers, or do by resolution, we probably should have someone attend. Motor Sports was a study, with items completed, but believe Council members need to continue to monitor, possibly through the CVB. Svoboda replied with that particular group the Council appointed a Task Force representative and that individual should respond to us, or at our request on what it is we would like them to report. Certainly could do during a pre-council to give updates, but what has been seen so far as been reported to us. When there is a final draft, or final reports, they submit. Eschliman stated the Zucker Study Monitoring group possibly needs a Councilman to back up or help the Mayor.

Eschliman commented she scheduled contacts with State Legislators and Lobbyists, and know the Council has discussed before. Possibly have more meetings, and maybe meet with a professional lobbyist. This results in huge revenue for the City, and sometimes think possibly would be better off meeting with them then going to a committee.

Camp added possibly have a retreat, late in the year, to talk about initiatives, and legislation, and specifically have Lincoln area legislators. Eschliman asked if thinking of two or four times a year? Camp thought definitely in the fall. Hoppe added another option is we have regular contact with lobbyists during the session, and possibly a Council member would like to attend. Hoppe said they don’t set contacts with an outside lobbyist, as they are scheduled, other than when we’re there, attending a meeting. Doubt if Council would get more than one meeting a year. It is imperative we speak as one voice to the State Legislature.

Marvin said hearing we should be able to meet with the lobbyists, and at a lobbyists meeting should have a Council liaison attend? Hoppe answered it’s actually departments, sometimes lobbyists with various objectives, and would certainly be of interest and someone from Council should attend.

Svoboda added he finds it surprising that we meet with our Omaha counterparts annually but we don’t meet with our own Lincoln Senators. Suggested before to have an annual meeting, with fall being a good time, as we start to gear up on legislation to be brought forward. Possibly not speaking in an unified voice, but having open dialogue with our Omaha counterparts as to their thoughts, our thoughts, and if we find six Council members expressing a deep desire, as well as the Mayor on one issue, we can definitely have a better feel. We all know them, but yet we never meet with them. Spatz thought meeting was a very good idea, especially for the new delegation, to report and stay in touch. Svoboda doesn’t suggest meeting during session, but prior to and then maybe in early summer as a dialogue, an exit dialogue, as to what happened last session and possibly on topics which will evolve later. At least once a year, possibly in the fall, would be a good opportunity. Camp agreed with Svoboda adding they develop legislation and would like to have a brain storming session. Would envision going to sessions, but would want a Council session towards October. Eschliman remembers discussion on this, and potentially this could bring more dollars to the City budget than any other committee.

Eschliman mentioned another committee, Lincoln Electric System, asking if there was a regular contact, or we talk just at budget time? If we have concerns, just call? Marvin said he has talked to Eagan about inviting Council to a LES meeting to become acquainted. Camp asked for explanation, believing each Council member received the LES operating statement, which was an attempt by LES to communicate. Eschliman stated she wonders, thinking of rate increases again, that maybe at times a relationship with LES is distant but there are times they are communicative, we call or go to meetings. We should consider certain times to have a conference.

Svoboda said it is known if there is an issue with LES, you go as an individual Council member, or a group, like when Cook, Marvin and he sat down with them and took issue with their budget. Believes we have done that on more of a personal item. Eschliman stated exactly her point. If one feels the necessity, can call, and then they go over the same thing with five (5) people. Is it more important to have a liaison for this type of organization than some other committees we assign a person to?

Cook said LES does have a governing board, were you thinking of contact with an individual, or contact with the governing board? Council members do go to the board meetings on a regular basis. Camp suggested having annual meetings, like those suggested with the Legislature. Could have a pre-council, or a Noon Meeting, where we invite board members, having interaction, or brain storming. A pre-council would be informal, but as it is a tremendous enterprise, would try once a year for a session. If we contact one by one, it’s almost too much repetition.

Spatz stated being new doesn’t know what the functioning of all committees should be, and as time is precious it is difficult to prioritize. Svoboda stated when Spatz is appointed to committees, will attend, and determine how important. Spatz replied he wouldn’t want to be in a situation with a very relevant committee and in the situation where he couldn’t attend. Camp added this is also the reason the day, and dates, are listed on the committee list.

Marvin thinks with LES we should try to have regularly scheduled meetings, reporting back, and see the results. If at a meeting with board members questions could be generated and if an item was to be fixed, or discussed, i.e., a rate increase, believes someone should attend the LES meeting, having a comfort level and report back to the City Council. This person would understand the intricacies and have a helpful relationship. Suggest posting the times of LES meetings to decide if a Council member should attend. Cook stated we do get agendas. Marvin added the Council does receive the minutes.

Svoboda stated now we should focus on committee assignments which are vacant with Newman’s and McRoy’s absence.
Marvin stated in looking at Attachment A, we have:
* Northeast Citizen’s Meeting - Emery
* PRT (Problem Resolution Team) - Emery. Committee contacted Councilman Emery.
* Community Learning Center Leadership Council - Emery. Committee has contacted Councilman Emery. Hoppe stated the Council is worth attending. Eschliman asked if required by ordinance with reply being no.
* DLA (Downtown Lincoln Association) - Spatz. A letter was received from DLA. Spatz stated he thought for downtown would be good to have an at-large person to be the official liaison. Spatz said he would attend regularly, and doesn’t mind being the official liaison. Eschliman said she could attend, either as a back-up to Spatz or an observer. Svoboda asked if the liaison has voting powers? Spatz replied none that he knew of.
* Downtown Master Plan Steering Committee - Open. Marvin said no correspondence was received, and doesn’t know if committee now exists. Harrell said she doesn’t believe anyone has to be designated for this committee. Not saying it wouldn’t be a group to consider anytime there are specific projects related to the Master Plan.
* Neighborhoods, Inc. (Neighborhood Works, Inc.) - Open. Marvin asked if members were assigned to this committee in the past? Eschliman asked if required, with replies being no.
* Mayor’s Downtown Action Team - Open. Harrell stated this group existed for a finite purpose and never under mandate. Camp said they do have quarterly dates listed. Harrell added she isn’t sure that has happened. Eschliman added if they want a Councilperson will let us know.
* Internal Liquor Committee - Svoboda, Eschliman, and Spatz. Marvin stated he is on this committee with Svoboda. Svoboda added we submit three officials and there are representatives from Downtown Lincoln Association, the Bar Association, Hospitality Group, NU Directions, Public Safety, Fire Prevention. The City Clerk takes minutes, with meetings every other month. The Committee receives reports from the detox center, Cornhusker Place. Oversees alcohol use in the City. An example would be to bring in the manager of specific troubling bars, and offer suggestions, and submit directions to the detox center. Work very closely with Building and Safety, and infrequently work with Control Commission. Is more dialogue of what’s happening with liquor within the City of Lincoln. Eschliman said with the binge drinking problem possibly think of solutions. Eschliman submitted her name for attending.
* Joint Budget Committee (JBC) - Eschliman, Emery. Eschliman stated the JBC deals with the money the City and County pool together for non-profit agencies. Marvin said the City takes 10% of their Keno revenue for JBC. Eschliman added in August usually have an update on money disbursement. Cook commented the Council does have to ratify.
* Multicultural Advisory Committee - Marvin. Spatz understands the committee meets monthly but doesn’t know the importance of someone attending monthly, not knowing if he would be the best choice. Hoppe said they take the summer off with no meetings, and this is a very important evolving appointment. Spatz asked who do they represent? Hoppe replied the Asian, African American, Spanish, and other communities. Marvin volunteered to serve on this committee. Spatz added he would try to attend the next meeting as a volunteer.
* Human Services Keno Prevention Fund - Spatz. Eschliman asked for differences between this committee and the JBC? Harrell stated the JBC is a joint budget with an interlocal, and discussed at budget, making recommendations to the committee and City and County budgets. The Keno Prevention Fund is money allocated from Keno money that also goes to Human Service agencies. Eschliman asked if the committees could be merged. Harrell said one tends to hear what the other is doing, but separate. Keno Prevention Fund also has community representation. Eschliman asked if Keno Prevention means gambling prevention, and other items? Harrell said there is a Keno group who reports to the JBC. The Keno Prevention Advisory Board was established by an interlocal agreement, when Keno was introduced in Lancaster County.
Camp asked for opinions on JBC and Human Services Keno Prevention Fund to be included on the Commons Agenda for next month. Eschliman stated possibly correspond with the law department on seeing if the two could be merged together. Meyer stated this would be listed on the Commons Agenda for August as the July meeting is Budget hearings.

* Haymarket Development Corporation Board - Spatz. Svoboda stated he currently sits on this board as McRoy could not work into her schedule. McRoy was asked to be on the Board, as it is the Downtown Haymarket Area. Camp was a founding organizer. Marvin added the Council received a letter from the committee asking if Spatz would like to attend, with meetings on the third Monday of every month, from September till May, summer off, 5:45 until 7:00 pm? Emery added he was on the Board also.

* NU Directions - Open. *(Emery) Grammer stated NU Directions also discusses drinking resolutions. Svoboda said the Board of Health actually was asked to consider it by a Board of Health member to talk about binge drinking and they decided many other agencies were doing that and the Board of Health should not get involved but act as a common tie between all when necessary. NU Directions also deals with binge drinking. *(After Noon Meeting consensus reached that Emery would be the representative to NU Directions)

Hoppe stated the Mayor’s office will get the paperwork started on the Mayoral appointments. Marvin thanked Hoppe on helping as there was confusion whether the Council or the Mayor’s office did. Grammer asked if NU Directions would be done by the Mayor’s office, with Marvin confirming. Eschliman asked if NU Directions sends a representative to the Internal Liquor Commission, with Svoboda replying they do.

Eschliman asked if we’re on a committee and willing to step down, allowing someone else to serve, discuss now? On committing to JBC would like to give up the Homeless Coalition. Views on the Homeless Coalition are they are organized, having functions, with most dealing with chronic homelessness, people on drugs, etc. The Council is as well off serving on a committee that really tackles drugs and methamphetamines. We’re all limited on personal time, but if someone wants to attend is really a good committee. They meet once a month and if they write a letter and ask, someone could consider. Marvin commented an option would be for Eschliman to attend the next meeting and inform them of our decision.

Marvin asked if there were any other Boards people are presently serving on that they would like to turn over to another Council member? Cook said RTSD helps fund projects. Eschliman stated she is assigned to the RTSD Board but doesn’t believe we should have this committee, thinking it has served it’s purpose, as we don’t have many car/train crashes. Believes it should be closed or turned into a transportation committee in order to use the money for roads, thinking it’s not right for the money to be spent on certain things. Eschliman said if she stays on the committee will continue to be outspoken. Cook asked regarding the quiet zones? Eschliman answered on the committee she voted against. As a Council member would love to have their money. Cook stated he thinks there’s value in having discussions with the County Board over how the levy should be allocated. The County ultimately controls the levy and they could chose to provide different items, and there is a reality that revenue can provide. Eschliman said she thinks it’s now more important to fund roads, with the major train/car crashes a thing of the past. The committee did a wonderful job, but now we have these critical problems. Cook added they do provide an important source of funding for the Antelope Valley Project, and the quiet zones are important, as it’s been a huge problem in recent years for neighborhoods anywhere near a track. Cook stated he was glad to see the RTSD involved. Eschliman said she has advocated for, and will continue to try to commit RTSD to a better transportation committee. Then, you can deal with train whistles, but we would have options. Thinks the committee should wind down or needs to change. Eschliman added if this body wants her to stay on the committee, as a rebel rouser, will do, continuing to be outspoken as to how she thinks. If someone else would rather be on the committee, it is fine. Svoboda said there are three representatives and doesn’t think the RTSD committee would be willing to drop as they fund a lot of projects in the county with RTSD revenue. Doesn’t think they are willing to look at the elimination of the committee.

Cook added the RTSD is by resolution and every single year. The Public Building Commission is a resolution for a three year appointment for him, but State law says it is a four year term, and would be happy to stay on the PBC, and happy serving on the Parks Board and the Cable Advisory Board.

2. Discussion of 1st Reading & Resolutions. (Requested by Dan Marvin) (Attachment C)

Marvin stated issues do come up and would like to share as problems come forward. Have had a call regarding a resident attending a meeting for 80th and Pioneers, a zone change, and the extension of one acre. Believe we received a letter which made the resident unhappy having this commercial and was a first reading item. Items like this come up and we should be informed. Eschliman asked if he was saying after receipt of the Thursday night packet need to go through the complete packet and at the Monday Noon meeting could discuss? Marvin answered if glancing through the 1st Reading and someone had a question let’s try to get the discussion out, and get an answer, being proactive. If there is anything seen which might be a problem bring it to this body’s attention before the public hearing.

Cook asked what about amendments? Marvin answered he didn’t know if anyone had any amendment which would be helpful but would share at the noon meeting, and then we would have a heads up. We know the different amendments for today’s meeting. Cook said it is common for things to come up at public hearing but is very good to receive copies prior to the regular meeting. Could be emailed, etc., but in the packet would be great. Could be a last chance to talk about an item at the noon meeting, rather than having a surprise.

Bowen handed out Attachment C on the City of Lincoln 2007 Key State Legislation Issues which were final on May 31, 2007. Had positive action on ten (10) of eighteen (18) priorities. He then briefly went through a few of the bills of precedence, outlining approvals, authorizations, and allocation amounts. Eschliman asked in the interest of having the Council behind you, adding support, is your contact with Senators usually by telephone on these types of items? Does the Chamber of Commerce, or a lobbyist call you? How do they communicate on some of these bills? Bowen replied it’s all combined. Attend meetings, meet with lobbyists, emails, calls. With single meetings can discuss single topics, then also do periodic updates to the session with our senate delegation. Letting them know where we stand on an issue(s) at the same time. Eschliman said possibly this would be where Council should go and support what you’re doing. Bowen said the meetings are scheduled and the City Council could attend.

Bowen brought up LB 562, allowing use of an occupation tax to finance infrastructure for economic development. Marvin asked with this bill is it possible for a district to be city-wide? Bowen answered yes. Marvin questioned the amount which could be applied as a sales tax? Bowen reiterated it is an occupational tax, not a sales tax. An occupational tax on anything; i.e., sales, property, etc. The district created has to be in agreement in adopting the tax.

Cook said the people who live in the area would be? Bowen replied it could be city-wide. Cook asked if the occupational tax, not just sales, could be set up so collection is done through the sales tax process or would it be a separate process for collecting? Bowen replied this is why we’re trying to get everyone on the same page. Marvin added one place discussed for using this was on Warlick and Highway 77, a large interchange needing to be financed. A large retail center would be developed and would generate, through this occupational tax, the money to help finance the construction of the on and off ramps. The owners of the property could adopt and use as a tool to help with some of the construction.

Concerning discussion on amendments, Svoboda stated there will be an amendment to the commercial boarding kennels which he is proposing, Number 0754. Basically will add commercial zoning kennels to the extension of pet shops, etc., allowing dogs and cats to be boarded overnight. Will take care of Camp Bow-Wow, boarding kennels within the City limits, and the one which was recently brought to our attention Pet Smart at 27th and Pine Lake Road. This opens up to a free market and if you decide to take your dog and/or cat to a location for ten days, it’s the owner’s call. Is not a Public Health issue. Opens up for a free market free for all.

Cook said if we called it grandfathering, allowing existing kennels to continue after annexation, we could pass the Health Code to change, allowing them to exist in the city limits. But then if we chose not to pass the zoning code changes only new kennels would be allowed in. Those zones which don’t have the specific list of uses allowed are kind of leaning in that direction. Svoboda said the Department of Health is looking at the issue from a public health standpoint, and they say there is no public health risk at all for boarding kennels within the City limits. Cook said by eliminating the Health Code Section it takes care of the public health item, but still believe there are zoning issues in proximity to neighborhoods, or other businesses, where the disruption might be significant. This is a way of stepping towards that, compared to existing businesses, allowing some new in areas where they are most likely to be compatible. Svoboda said he believes we look at it mostly from a market standpoint, but if you’re the landlord or manager of a building, and you want to put a Pet Smart right next to a food establishment, or a day care, it is between you and your tenants. Cook stated this debate may be continued, just making the case, possibly to vote one up and the other down.

Dan Marvin, Chairman
Lincoln City Council
555 South 10th Street
Lincoln, NE 68508

Dear Dan,

Congratulations on your selection as Chairman of the City Council for the upcoming year! You will be an excellent chairman and all of us at DLA look forward to working with you.

As has been the custom for many years, we are contacting you to invite a member of the City Council to serve as a liaison to our board of directors, which meets monthly at 8 a.m. on the fourth Tuesday of the month. This liaison role has served both DLA and the City Council well in recent years and we hope it will continue.

Thank you for discussing this with the council. We look forward to continuing our strong partnership with you.

Sincerely,

Polly M. McMullen
Polly M. McMullen, President
Downtown Lincoln Association
Dear Councilman Marvin,

As the Chair of the City Council the Lincoln Haymarket Development Corporation (LHDC) requests that the council appoint a member to serve as liaison to our board.

LHDC operates the Farmers' Market, owns and operates the Hardy and Granger buildings in the Haymarket and conducts several fundraising events during the year. (ie: Chocolate Lovers Fantasy and Corkand Ale Tasting) LHDC is committed to the economic revitalization of Lincoln's Historic Haymarket District through a continuing comprehensive process that protects, enhances and promotes the District's architectural and cultural heritage. We use the proceeds from our activities to accomplish this mission.

I have attached an information sheet on our organization which you may find helpful.

We have been fortunate to have Ken Svoboda attend our board meeting the past several years. Ken replaced Councilwoman McRoy, who represents our district, who was unable to commit to attending our meetings. With the election of a new councilman for our area, John Spatz, we feel it is appropriate to explore if that individual would like to begin attending our board meetings. Our board meets the third Monday of every month from September to May with the months of June, July and August off from 5:45 p.m. to approximately 7:00 p.m.

There are many exciting things happening in our area. Talk of the new arena, hotel and convention center, the redevelopment of the Saw Mill property, the construction of additional condos at the BisonBookBuilding, etc. We would like to have the council decide who best fits to serve as a liaison with our board.

If you have any questions concerning this request or the Lincoln Haymarket Development Corporation please feel free to contact either myself or Peter Hind our board president.

Doug Lienemann

Thank you for your consideration,

Past President

LHDC
What is the Lincoln Haymarket Development Corporation?
Often referred to as LHDC or simply "Historic Haymarket", LHDC is a non-profit organization formed by Haymarket businesses, property owners, and community leaders in 1985. LHDC was primarily formed in order to apply for participation in the National Main Street Program. This is a revitalization program, administered by the National Trust for Historic Preservation. The Haymarket was selected as one of nine sites in the nation that year as a district qualifying as a Main Street Program Site. This led the District and LHDC to the development of a broad-based revitalization plan, done under the direction of the National Main Street Center. LHDC also formulated a plan to financially implement the program over a long period of time.

LHDC Mission Statement
LHDC is committed to the economic revitalization of Lincoln's Historic Haymarket District through a continuing comprehensive process that protects, enhances and promotes the District's architectural and cultural heritage.

LHDC Goals
The goal of LHDC is to develop and maintain a strong Historic Haymarket District. An organization that can effectively plan, manage and implement projects, enhance and maintain the design quality within the District, develop and maintain an economically dynamic District, and develop and maintain a distinct image and do quality promotions.

These are the LHDC objectives
To establish an organization work plan, recruit members to implement the work plan, identify leadership for the organization and educate all members as to our purpose.

To foster a positive public attitude, involve all sectors of the city, establish a financially stable operations base using sound accounting procedures, and inventory public sector resources.

To develop and maintain cooperation and good public relations with area businesses, property owners, city, community, and other organizations.

To establish an overall image and logo and identify development potential of buildings and uses with an optimum mix of housing, office and retail, develop work shops for existing businesses, explore financial assistance mechanisms for redevelopment and work with the City regarding appropriation of funds to Haymarket projects.

To cultivate the media to enhance public awareness, sponsor annual events including the Farmers Market, attract tourism by working with the tourist bureau and other entities, develop and distribute promotional material, including a walking tour guide, and assist the retail merchants with promoting their businesses.
