Discussion (Including Relationship to other Council Actions) An undeveloped five-acre neighborhood park adjoins the future Adams Elementary School site in the Tamarin Ridge Development. The Parks & Recreation Advisory Board has recommended that the park be named in recognition of Arnott Folsom for his community service. Mr. Folsom advocated for establishment of the Children's Zoo in Lincoln, and was the primary fundraiser for initial development of the zoo. He was an advocate of opportunities for children to experience and interact with the natural environment.	Opponents	Groups or Individuals Basis of Opposition
