JONATHAN COOK

1. Cole Gentry letter requesting Councilman Cook to check into allowing tobacco shops not to be included in the ban requiring a smoke free environment.

V. CORRESPONDENCE FROM CITIZENS

1. Ryan Reinke email in favor of funding sidewalks.
2. Erin Glenn-Hash in support of the funding increase to make sidewalks safe and functional for all.
3. Dan Glasser stating reasons why his claim against the City of Lincoln is valid.
 - a) Dan Glasser's documentation of claim.
4. Phone messages on 02.11.14 regarding liquor license for Marcus Theaters:
 - a) James Heydt. Against theater having a liquor license. There is an overabundance of liquor establishments downtown, leave 1 entertainment venue without alcohol. Lincoln is ranked #10 in the country for drinking alcohol, are we shooting for No. 1?
 - b) Joyce Skala. Do not want alcohol in theaters. Think of the children.
 - c) Beverly Kissinger. Do not want alcohol in theaters.
 - d) Twila Wilson. Not in favor of having alcohol at the Grand Theater.
 - e) Mrs. Larry Nelson. Do not encourage alcohol in theaters. These are good places for children to go with their parents, and there are enough places to drink outside of the theater.
5. Glenna Graupmann email asking for consideration not to grant permission to the Grand Theater to have a liquor license.
6. Harley Charlson email on possible use for Pershing as Ice Rink.
 - a) Response from Councilman Eskridge on potential uses for Pershing.
7. Joan Anderson. Opposed to alcohol at the Grand Theater, listing reasons.
