What do we do?

We are a full-service job center that serves as a common point where Lancaster and Saunders County job seekers and businesses can access a variety of employment services. We strive to assist with the removal of barriers in order to pave a pathway to successful employment.

Our goal is to connect jobseekers to positions and training opportunities in the industries with the greatest demand for workers. We operate as a system of organizations aiming to reduce barriers for jobseekers while providing business solutions to local businesses. We offer a variety of workshops, training opportunities, hiring events, and coaching to ensure jobseekers and businesses are being connected.
