Scott Gaines, Deputy County Assessor/Register of Deeds, said there was an error in some of the mixed-use property values; these notices would correct them. He noted a 30-day window for appeal.

Rob Ogden, Deputy County Assessor/Register of Deeds, said most of the properties are special value properties. He said there was an error when the notices were originally produced so they need to be corrected. Raybould questioned why some had such substantial increases. Ogden said most of the changes are in agricultural land value. Hudkins questioned the increase in agricultural value. Ogden said it is based on market value and the increase was anywhere from 15-40%. Hudkins asked if there was a value range for the properties. Ogden said the range of value for all parcels is 92-100% except for agricultural parcels which are 68-75%.

MOTION: Heier moved and Smoyer seconded approval to send the notices. Heier, Smoyer, Hudkins, Raybould and Schorr voted aye. Motion carried 5-0.
