Dear Mike,

I have received your letter of September 15, 2017, announcing you intention to retire from the Lancaster County Sheriff's Office, effective the 1st week of February, 2018. I understand your last physical day at work will be sometime in early January 2018, while the remainder of your time will be holiday and vacation leave. You will be able to take advantage of the Temporary Retirement Buyout program in the Deputy Sheriffs' 2016-2018 labor agreement with Lancaster County. Please review Appendix C of the Labor Agreement between the Lancaster County Deputy Sheriffs Association and Lancaster County Board of Commissioners.

Keep in contact my Administrative Aide, Tami Villar to coordinate your final benefits payout. We would be honored to host a reception to celebrate your retirement, if you desire. Please let Tami know if that is possible.

You have been a tremendous asset to this Office and to me personally. I appreciate the over 37 years you have served Lancaster County and its citizens. Your loyalty, dedication and work ethic has been an inspiration to the entire Office. I wish you all the best in your retirement.
