Dear Friends,

The Lancaster County Board of Commissioners cordially invites the Nebraska Association of County Officials to host its Annual Conference in Lincoln for 2021 and 2022. The Lincoln Convention & Visitors Bureau has presented a strong bid for hosting the conferences and has the full support of the Lancaster County Board.

Lincoln and Lancaster County have a rich tradition in hosting a variety of large events, from sports tournaments to conferences. Lincoln provides numerous opportunities to create memorable experiences for our visitors. Our hotels, attractions, restaurants, shopping and cultural activities combine to offer a first-class visit to our community. And with the addition of the Pinnacle Bank Arena and the expansion of the Haymarket, we are better positioned than ever to host your events. Lincoln is home of the Nebraska Cornhuskers, and is considered by Nebraskans across the State to be their second home.

Lincoln is a safe and clean community that offers visitors a warm welcome. Being the seat of Lancaster County and State government, Lincoln gives county officials a unique opportunity to engage with fellow county and State leaders. Lincoln and Lancaster County will go to great lengths to provide a wonderful experience for all NACO members and county officials. For these reasons the Lancaster County Board encourages the NACO Conference Committee to favorably consider the bid presented by the Lincoln Convention & Visitors Bureau.

Sincerely,

Todd Wiltgen, Chair
