2018 Department of Corrections Employee of the Year

Todd Goscha

I would like to nominate Officer Todd Goscha for the 2018 Lancaster County Department of Corrections Employee of the Year. Todd has been an officer with the department since August of 2012. He is currently assigned to the classification department. Some of his duties include completing inmate Classification, correcting fingerprint cards, and population management. Todd is very knowledgeable in regards to the classification policies and manual and he regularly assists the other classification staff when needed. During my Transition to the Classification Supervisor, Todd provided me with an abundance of information, guidance and advice. When I was initially placed in the Classification Supervisor position, I was unfamiliar with many of specifics in regards to the operations of the classification department other than those addressed in policy and procedure. Due to experience and knowledge of the classification process, Todd was selected to remain in the position for an additional shift bid. With his assistance, inmate classification has remained consistent through the transition of supervisors.

In addition to his normal duties, Todd shows his willingness to be a team player by reporting to Booking to help when they are busy, assisting the work release coordinator by completing Drug testing, moving individuals that have been approved for Work Release, responding to emergencies, and assisting with searches. Todd assists with these tasks on a day to day basis without being asked.
