 The Gang Suppression Planning Grants Program is designed to reduce violent crime, gangs, and victimization and promote public safety in communities through planning support to localities to build capacity for a multilateral data-driven strategy.
- 9. Attach a one page summary of grant.
- 10. Attach a one page budget of grant.

The overall, long-term goals of the Gang Suppression Planning Grants Program are to:

- Understand the jurisdiction’s gang landscape and be able to use data (gang intelligence) to develop effective gang control strategies;
- Reduce and sustain reductions in community youth violence, particularly gun and gang violence, and victimization;
- Prevent violence and promote healing from victimization and exposure to violence in the home, school, and community; and
- Increase the safety, well-being, and healthy development of children, youth, and families.

Specific objectives and associated activities are:

1. Develop a customized gang suppression strategy equipped to address the unique challenges presented to local law enforcement and prosecutors.
2. Address how to reduce youth gun and gang violence and increase public safety in the final strategic plan. Prevent and intervene to deter youth ages 12 to 24 from gun and gang violence using evidence- and practice-based approaches, notably the OJJDP Comprehensive Gang Model; Group Violence Intervention, formerly known as the Boston Ceasefire model; and Cure Violence.
3. Increase the scope and effectiveness of community-based youth violence and gang control strategies to address the ever-changing nature of gangs, gang structure, and behaviors.
4. Address how to reduce the impact of violence on youth by improving identification, screening, access, delivery, and quality of services available to youth exposed to gang-related violence, ensuring that these services address the trauma and development needs of the youth and the community in the final strategic plan.
5. Plan to elevate suppression and interruption of/exposure to youth gang violence as a priority issue within the applicant jurisdiction and work collaboratively with public and private entities to align this work with other national and local youth violence (including gang intelligence data sharing) and community-building initiatives as part of a national network, including OJJDP gang and youth violence grantees, national technical assistance providers, researchers, and policy leaders working collaboratively on these issues.
6. Provide training to increase the understanding of the jurisdiction’s gang landscape.

A comprehensive long-term strategic plan will be developed by the end of the project period.
